

Information Systems Division – IS

.Net Developer/Application Specialist (ITS 4)

Information Services
Driver Technology Group
421 Black Lake Blvd. SW
Olympia, WA 98502

Closes: December 05, 2014, 11:59 AM

DOL MISSION:

With a strong commitment to great service, we advance public safety and consumer protection through licensing, regulation and education, and we collect revenue that supports our state's transportation system.

DOL VISION:

Proudly earning Washington's confidence every day through the highest level of service and commitment to public safety.

DOL employees: Click this video to hear what your peers are saying.

DIVERSITY

The Washington State Department of Licensing celebrates a diverse workforce. It is our policy to provide equal opportunity in all terms and conditions of employment. We encourage all qualified persons, including members of protected groups under applicable state or federal law, to apply for our open positions. Click here to complete an optional questionnaire.

Persons with disabilities who need assistance in the application process or those needing this announcement in an alternate format may call (360) 902-4063 or TTY (360) 664-0116.

Duties:-

Member of the Driver Technology Group. Develop and support systems associated with Driver Applications that directly contribute to the Agency strategies and initiatives: Driver Internet Applications, Driver Headquarters System (DHS), Driver Field Systems (DFS), Abstract Driver Record (ADR), E-Trip, Washington State Patrol (WSP), Driver Applications associated with American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators (AAMVA), Commercial Driver License Information System (CDLIS), Problem Driver Pointer System (PDPS), Social Security Verification (SSOLV), Electronic Voters Registration (EVR), etc. Solution development, interface with the Requirements Analyst and recommend the final software design, with oversight around technically complex code and design as well as complex objects, components, interfaces, services, and third party APIs. Programming activity includes making code changes or writing new code based on business requirements. Work with production system support of major, high-risk systems for the Agency. Troubleshoot highly complex systems and communicating and implementing complete recovery of production problems. Evaluation, analysis, correction, and documentation of defects to assure quality work products of major, high-risk systems for the Agency. Collaborate with other developers on complex, multi-level testing (unit, automated, integration, system, performance, browser, regression, etc.) to assure quality work products of major, high-risk systems for the Agency. Research issues related to environment, platforms, software, and hardware requirements. Use HTML, DHTML, SQL Server 2005, Visual Basic 6, Visual Basic.NET, C#, VBScript, ASP, ASP.NET, XML, XSLT, CSS, COBOL.net, COBOL, etc. May be assigned other tasks within DOL as needed.

Position Requirements:

Please ensure that your letter and résumé demonstrate the following qualifications.

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science or related, which includes completion of course work in operating systems, database design, data mining, and algorithms
- Two years as IT Specialist, or related
- Will accept Master's Degree in CS or related and coursework in operating systems, database design, data mining, and algorithms, in lieu of two years' experience as IT Specialist

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- To apply for this position, e-mail the following to HRrecruit@dol.wa.gov OR arao@dol.wa.gov with a subject line of "11-109G (ITS4)".
- A written explanation clearly describing how your skills and experience meet the REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS, COMPETENCIES and/or the PREFERRED QUALIFICATION listed in this announcement.

WASHINGTON STATE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

- Your chronological résumé depicting/describing work experience that supports your letter of interest.
- A list of at least 3 professional references including names, professional titles, and current phone numbers.

NOTES

NOTE: To take advantage of veteran's preference, applicants must also do the following:

- Email DD214 (Member 4 copy), NGB 22, signed verification of service letter from USDVA or other service documents that we can use to verify your eligibility.
- Please note - In order to protect your private information be sure and send this to HrRecruit@dol.wa.gov with the subject line "11-109G (ITS4)" – Vet's Preference and not as an attachment to your application.
- Include your name in the message as it appears on the application you submitted through the system.

Preference will not be granted until service documents are verified. Documents must be received by the closing date of the announcement.

This position is in a collective bargaining unit. As a condition of employment, you will be required to become a member and/or pay a fee as required by the master agreement.

The act of submitting application materials is considered affirmation that the information provided is complete and truthful. Prior to any new appointment into DOL, a background check will be conducted.